Highlights (ask your Branch President for more detail)

Our AMPA delegation has been selected for this important election year.

EI lump sum settlement (not coal) has been finalized over the claw back.

Never sign a blank mutual agreement form.

Halton has 18,765 students enrolled, which was close to projection and promising for staffing for next year!

The Health and Safety Reps have been selected for the schools.

There are concerns about voucher system statements made from the Government over public education.

Pay attention to the wishes of the Chamber of Commerce for future Government direction and planning.

A new campaign highlighting the work we do with students is going to be launched at the provincial level.

The Children's Holiday Party was a great success.

Your local council met for the holidays and enjoyed the company of our brothers and sisters in solidarity! We need to continue to support each other as our New Year's Resolution.

Doug ford has indicated after the line by line audit that they need to cut 4% which would include Education and could amount to 1 billion in cuts and affect jobs.

District 20 donated to the food bank and the Women's shelter on your behalf.

We also participated in the Day of Remembrance, for those massacred at l'École Polytechnique de Montréal, against gender based violence.

Happy Holidays to all of our members!
