Teachers Bargaining Unit (D20)

As we get ready for Semester 2, remember that you can always check with your local Branch rep about issues that you may encounter during start up.

Political Tidbits

- University Funding has been cut
- Changes to OSAP grants
- 2 tier health care being discussed in caucus

Local Highlights (ask your Branch President for more detail)

District 20 will be supporting the Women's Day Dinner in March.

Executive agreed that TBU Committee Members will now be posted on the website.

Provincial Highlights

There is a new video for members to help explain the bargaining process for education workers. (Click the icon for quick access.)

A new campaign will highlight the work that education workers do in the schools. This will be a multichannel digital marketing tool beginning in February.

The key message will be "No Cuts to Education."

Nominate Halton teachers for the OSSTF/FEESO Award or Recognition for members by January 31st (16 different awards from all aspects of our services)

OTIP has three awards

- OTIP Teaching awards application is due by March 31st.
- Do you know a student who could use an extra $1500 for tuition from a Bursary from OTIP?
- OTIP also has an application to win $5000 toward a project that would sponsor School Initiatives.

The proposed 4% cut to education (translates to $1 billion) will have a significant impact on what we can deliver.
